

Mylie Ceiling Lamp

---

Mylie Ceiling Lamp

Description

The Mylie Ceiling Lamp solves the ceiling light problem that most rooms never quite get right: a fixture that covers the room evenly, sits flush enough for low ceilings, and actually contributes something to the space's design.
Mylie Ceiling Lamp — Natural Travertine Flush Mount

Drawing

|                       |                                                                                    |
|-----------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Type                  | Ceiling Lamp (Mylie)Flush Mount / Low Ceiling Space                            |
| Environment           | Indoor, Flush MountIndoor                                                      |
| Dimensions [cm/in]    | Dia: 15 cm x H 9.5 cm / Ø 5.9" x H 3.7"Additional sizes available upon request |
| Light source          | Compatible with G9 socket (LED or Edison bulb sold separately). AC 110-240V        |
| Power                 | Max 40W                                                                            |
| Finishes              | Beige (Lamp body), White (Travertine shade).Available for selection.           |
| Construction material | Wood, Travertine & Glass                                                           |
| Mounting              | Wall (Ceiling flush)                                                               |
| Control Method        | Push button switch (not dimmable)                                                  |
| Voltage               | AC 110-240V                                                                        |